ORDER FOR PARTIES TO PROVIDE
LIST OF DISPUTED FACTS RE
SEASONAL AMUSEMENT EXEMPTION

19 At the February 16, 2022 motion hearing, the Court requested that the parties provide an 20 additional submission listing undisputed and disputed facts relating to the training facilities in 21 order to determine whether the relevant establishments for those facilities can be decided on 22 summary judgment. In particular, in the minutes, the Court ordered as follows:

23 No later than March 3, 2022, subject to any reasonable extensions the 24 Court may grant, the parties shall meet and confer and file a joint 25 submission not to exceed fifty (50) pages, if possible, addressing each 26 of the training facilities, by location, with respect to whether the part 27 of the facility used for minor league training constitutes a separate establishment from the part that is used for major league training. For each location, the parties shall provide a list of all of the relevant facts that are undisputed. In addition, the submission should include a section identifying the relevant facts for each training facility that are disputed, along with citations to the evidence.

28 Dkt. no. 1052. The Court subsequently extended the deadline to March 10, 2022.

29 On March 10, 2022, the parties submitted a joint statement of undisputed facts, dkt. no.
30 1062, but the parties did not identify the facts that are in dispute. The Court requests that the 31 parties supplement their previously filed submission with the disputed facts and evidence for each

1 training facility, as previously ordered, no later than March 25, 2022. To the extent that there are 2 no disputed facts as to any of the training facilities, the parties should indicate this in their 3 supplemental submission. Like the undisputed facts, the disputed facts should be limited to those 4 contained in the parties' summary judgment submissions.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.
